When a customer brings in items to consign, three different things can happen.

Highest Value Items:

- Regular 50/50 consignment where the owner of the item will get paid once it sells.
- If it does not sell after two months, ownership will transfer fully to Four Daughters Thrift at which point we can lower the price, save to sell at a later time, or donate to charity.
- These would be items that are...
 - High quality
 - Name brand
 - Good condition
 - In season (or ideal for all seasons)
 - Desirable styles

Middle Value Items:

- We pay up front per item and then it belongs fully to Four Daughters Thrift.
- Customers would receive between around $2-$5 per item.
- These would be items that are...
 - Name brand items with some visible wear
 - Out of season
 - Generally just slower to sell items

Lowest Value Items:

- Some items we aren't able to pay for (price we would sell it for wouldn't cover expenses).
- We are happy to accept anything as a donation or you can take it back with you.
- If donated to Four Daughters, these items will either be sold for a low price or donated to a charity.
